The wool season at Fort Benton was early, and somewhat shorter than usual—beginning about June 20th, and ending July 20th. Owing to the very dry weather shearing was finished up with more than usual desputch.

A. P. Macdonald, a well known railway harneter, is in the city making enquires is to the route of the proposed railway to 'cace River.

Meser. Wilstean and Ediridge were coming, and no mon wood was sold until their arrival. Wilstean opened the ball by noying 22c. for 18s sacks on July 30, and during his step purchashed, suite 225/c. Edibridge bought but little, partial from 21 to 215/c.

A new feature in the market this year was the local buyer or speculator. One of Chas. Gilson's clips of 25,000 pounds, passed into second hands, at 28c., while the Malky. Coft & Metaul wool.

and Henry Macdonato's clip of solono pounds, passed into second hands, at Ekc., while the Malthy, Creft & Metall wood was sold at 22%. The detination of the river wools can not be smatch yet stated yet, although it is evident that they are sufficient more evenly divided.
